

Libertas Mathematica (new series)

is published under the auspices of the American Romanian Academy of Arts and Sciences (ARA) but self supported.

The first series of the journal, edited since 1981 by Professor Constantin Corduneanu at University of Texas at Arlington, USA, was completed in 2011. All the 31 volumes of this series are available online at

<http://system.lm-ns.org/index.php/lm/>

Since 2012 the journal is published at the University of Aveiro, Portugal, in cooperation and with partial support from University of Aveiro and from the Center for Research and Development in Mathematics and Applications (CIDMA), hosted in the University of Aveiro.

One volume with two issues, per year, are published in both printed and electronic editions. Occasionally, a special issue will be devoted to a survey of the state of the art in a specific area of mathematics where fundamental progress has occurred. Other issues will celebrate the scientific contributions of eminent mathematicians, having strong ties to the Romanian School of Mathematics.

The invitation to submit high quality papers to Libertas Mathematica (new series) is addressed not only to mathematicians born in Romania but to the international mathematical community as well.

Correspondence related to order or renewal of subscriptions, as well as, to exchange proposals for Libertas Mathematica (new series), should be addressed to the Editor-in-Chief:
